He's a heavy drinker and selfish in the bedroom. Fister on 95.7 The X

While many radio stations today are just space on a server rack. 95.7 The X is a real place, with real people, real moving parts and really hot interns. 95.7 The X. It's a real thing.

If there is a naked stripper in the break room squatting over a birthday cake... You might work at 95.7 The X. "I'm not going to eat that."

20 Years of Broadcasting History. And we've got the underwear to prove it. Knoxville's New Rock, 95.7 The X

Hustler magazine said his articles were too filthy. Now he works at the X.... Fister. Weeknights - 95.7 The X

Once you snort coke off of a gold record it is hard to go back to a regular job. Fister - 95.7 The X

The internet radio station you are listening to right now could.....vanish. A new ruling from the U.S. Copyright Royalty Board -- an arm of the Library of Congress will increase the Royalty Rates paid by internet radio stations. The rates will become so expensive that it will force many Internet Radio Stations to go silent..... Don't let internet radio go dark! Save the Stream! Go to savethestreams.org. Get information, sign the petition and send a message to your representative in congress at savethestreams.org
